

Jack and the Beanstalk

Jack and his mum lived on a farm.

They had no food.

"Sell the cow," said his mum.

Jack went to the market. He met an old man.
“I will sell the cow for some little beans,”
said Jack.

Jack's mum w^{as} cross.

"Y^{ou} got s^{ome} litt^{le} b^eans for th^e c^{ow}!"

she s^{aid}.

Jack planted the beans.
They started to grow.

A beanstalk started to grow.

The beanstalk was as high as the moon!

Jack started up the beanstalk.

Soon Jack saw a castle.

It was spooky!

He went into a big room.

There was a giant with a bag of gold coins.

“I am in a bad mood! I can smell a boy!” said the giant.

Jack hid and the[✨]
gi^hant fell asleep.
Jack left with the[✨]
bag of go^hld co^hins.

“There are some gold coins for you mum,”
said Jack. He started up the beanstalk.

He went into a big room.

There was the giant with a big spoon.

A hen was laying golden eggs.

“I am in a bad mood! I can smell a boy!” said the giant.

Jack hid and the[✨]
gi[!]ant fell asleep.
hen.

“There is a hen for you mum,” said Jack.
He started up the beanstalk.

He went into a big room.

There was the giant with a harp.

“I am in a bad mood! I can smell a boy!” said
the giant.

Jack hid and the[✨]
gi[!]ant fell asleep.
har[✨]p.

But the [✨]e [✨]harp [✨]started to to sing!

The giant woke up.

"I want my harp!" said the giant.

Zoom! Cool Blue came to help.

They ran down the beanstalk.

Boom went the giant's footsteps.

So Jack chopped the beanstalk down with a hard sharp axe.

Now they have lots of gold and lots of food.
